

REFLECTIONS (Dr. Peter Jarjisian)

Tuesday, March 11, 2025

Good Tuesday evening!

Thanks for responding to my invitation to send a photo and tell me about yourself.

By Monday, we will have sung the entire, 75-minute work. We're on the verge of greater sounds and greater confidence. Be patient, and forge ahead with me!

Many of you are already doing so, but just imagine how successful the April 26 concert could be if each of you invested some time preparing for each of our remaining rehearsals. Not sure what to do? Choose one movement (perhaps 7 or 2). Look at your music as you listen to the Atlanta Symphony recording. Do it again, and again. "A little, a lotta times." Enjoy the journey!

CONFIRMING CALENDAR:

Mondays: March 17, 24, 31; April 7, 14, 21 – Community United Methodist Church (7:30-9:30)

Wednesday: April 23 – Grace United Methodist Church (300 E. Gartner Rd., Naperville)

Friday: April 25 – Wentz Hall (7:00-10:00) w/Naperville Festival Orchestra

Saturday: April 26 – Wentz Hall (1:30 call) 2:00-2:30 rehearsal w/orch. 3:00 pm Concert.

NEXT MONDAY:

Sectional rehearsals – You'll need the handout isolating Mvt. 3 (mm. 164 – 173)

Mvt. 1

Mvt. 2

Mvt. 7

WHAT AN OPPORTUNITY AWAITS YOU!

On April 26, you get to sing one of the most beloved choral works by one of our civilization's most revered composers. And, you get to sing with FULL orchestra!

FYI

Apollo Chorus presents the A German Requiem

Saturday, March 15 (7:00 pm)

First United Methodist Church

516 Church St.

Evanston, IL 60201